Superintendent's Highlights

Each of the seven buildings is establishing a home page on the Internet to complement the district's home page.

The district's Education Foundation was busy funding scholarships, grants and awards for the district's employees.

Extensive curriculum work in grades K-12 for most core courses was completed.

The school district teams with other districts in the county and in Region 5 to create much needed support systems.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1998-99 Goals	Progress
To implement a comprehensive district-wide staff development program.	Workshops, courses, and inservice was planned to support staff development in technology, prevention efforts and instructional expertise.
To establish a district-wide scope and sequence.	During 1998-99, work was completed on the curriculum revisions and textbook adoption for mathematics.
To implement school and subject exiting standards.	Snake River High School is developing school and subject area exiting standards. By the Fall of 1999, the standards and indicators will be completed for all core and most elective courses.
